

Estimates.	lished is to be in any way changed as to width or depth or direction, and a profile of each, showing surface of ground, the bottom or grade and number of cubic yards of excavation or fill, and the total yards in the proposed improvement and the estimated cost thereof, and the plans and specifications, and the cost of any other work required to be done.
Assessment and payment of damages.	SEC. 11. If damage be claimed by any person or corporation for land taken or for inconvenience imposed because of the construction or improvement, or for any other legal damage sustained, such claims for damages shall be assessed and adjusted and paid in the manner prescribed in section eleven of chapter four hundred and forty-two of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and nine and amendments thereto.
Classification of lands.	SEC. 12. The lands added to an established drainage district under the provisions of this chapter shall be classified according to benefits as provided by section twelve of chapter four hundred and forty-two of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and nine, and amendments thereto.
Account and report of costs.	SEC. 13. The engineer and viewers shall keep an accurate account of cost of survey and expenses, and report same to the court in manner provided by section fifteen of chapter four hundred and forty-two of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and nine, and amendments thereto.
Time for completion of work.	SEC. 14. Should the work of the engineer and viewers be unavoidably delayed, the engineer and viewers shall appear before the court and state in writing the cause of such failure and ask for sufficient time in which to complete the work, and the court shall set another date by which the work shall be completed, and report made and filed.
Examination and order on final report.	SEC. 15. When the final report is completed and filed, it shall be examined by the court, and if found to be in due form and in accordance with law, it shall be accepted, and if not in due form, it may be referred back to the engineer and viewers, with instructions to secure further information to be reported at a subsequent date to be fixed by the court. When the report is fully completed and accepted by the court, a date not less than twenty days thereafter shall be fixed by the court for the final hearing upon the report, and notice thereof shall be given by publication in a newspaper published in the county, if any, and by posting notices on the courthouse door and at five conspicuous places throughout the district as enlarged, such publication to be made at least two weeks before the final hearing. During this time a copy of the report shall be on file in the office of the clerk of the Superior Court and shall be open to the inspection of any landowner or other person interested within the district as enlarged.
Date for final hearing.
Advertisement of hearing.
Report open for inspection.
Proceedings on hearing.	SEC. 16. At the date set for hearing, any landowner may appear in person or by counsel and file his objection in writing to the report of the viewers, and it shall be the duty of the court to care-